

The HIPAA Challenge

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) of 1996 requires that virtually all employees of healthcare provider organizations, healthcare insurers, and healthcare clearinghouses be trained in the areas of privacy and security.

Deadline for completing training is April 14, 2003

HIPAA Requires Re-Training

- Whenever policies or procedures change
- Whenever the Regulations change
- For new hires or job changers
- In addition, many states have even more burdensome privacy regulations requiring state preemption analysis

Penalties for Lack of Compliance

- Imprisonment and Federal fines up to $250,000 for intentional violations
- Civil lawsuits liabilities
- Requirement as a CMS contractor
